

Reggie Carter Scholarship

2024

Please note that this scholarship is not associated with the Reggie Carter Basketball Game and Award.

Reggie Carter was a star basketball player for St. John's who played his professional career with the New York Knicks. At Mineola, Carter was the high school Assistant Principal until his death in 1999. He overcame adversity, had a strong work ethic, a charismatic personality, and the ability to motivate others: a true leader. He was a role model with a high moral compass: someone kind, welcoming, and inclusive of others.
